

ImageScale.co Privacy Policy

ImageScale (“we” or “us”) values its visitors’ privacy. This Privacy Policy is effective February 1, 2013; it summarizes what information we might collect from a registered user or other visitor (“you”), and what we will and will not do with it.

Please note that this Privacy Policy does not govern the collection and use of information by companies that ImageScale does not control, nor by individuals not employed or managed by ImageScale. If you visit an external website that we mention or link to, be sure to review its Privacy Policy before providing external websites with information.

Information we collect

It is always up to you whether to disclose personally identifiable information to us, although if you elect not to do so, we reserve the right not to register you as a user or provide you with any products or services. “Personally identifiable information” means information that can be used to identify you as an individual, such as, for example:

- your contact information, including your name, company name, email address, phone number, and address
- your account preference information
- your domain name and IP address
- session data
- If you contact us, we may keep a record of that correspondence
- Details of transactions you carry out through our site and of the fulfillment of your orders
- Details of your visits to our site including, but not limited to, traffic data, location data, logs, and other communication data, whether this is required for our own billing purposes or otherwise, and the resources that you access
- Where you purchase our services, we will store confirmation of your payment. We do store your credit card information as we use a third party payment processor.

If you do provide personally identifiable information to us, we will:

- not sell or rent it to a third party without your permission
- use your contact information to provide you with information we believe you need to know or may find useful, such as news about our services and products; You may opt out of receiving these messages by updating your account settings.

- use your contact information to inform you of substantial modifications to the Terms of Service
- take commercially reasonable precautions to protect the information from loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction;
- not use or disclose the information except:
 - as necessary to provide services or products you have ordered, such as (for example) by providing it to a carrier to deliver products you have ordered;
 - in other ways described in this Privacy Policy or to which you have otherwise consented;
 - in the aggregate with other information in such a way so that your identity cannot reasonably be determined (for example, statistical compilations);
 - as required by law, for example, in response to a subpoena or search warrant;
 - to outside auditors who have agreed to keep the information confidential;
 - as necessary to enforce the Terms of Service;
 - as necessary to protect the rights, safety, or property of ImageScale, its users, or others; this may include exchanging information with other organizations for purposes of fraud protection and/or risk reduction.

Other information we collect

We may collect other information that cannot be readily used to identify you. We may use this information, individually or in the aggregate, for technical administration of our Web site(s); research and development; account administration; and to help us focus our marketing efforts more precisely.

Cookies

ImageScale uses “cookies” to store personal data on your computer. We may also link information stored on your computer in cookies with personal data about specific individuals stored on our servers. If you set up your Web browser so that cookies are not enabled, you might not be able to use some or all of the features of our website.

External data storage sites

We may store your data on servers provided by third party hosting vendors with whom we have contracted.

Your privacy responsibilities

To help protect your privacy, be sure:

- not to share your user ID or password with anyone else;
- to log off the ImageScale Web site when you are finished;
- to take customary precautions to guard against “malware” (viruses, Trojan horses, bots, etc.), for example, by installing and updating suitable anti-virus software.

Notice to European Union users

ImageScale’s operations are located primarily in the United States. If you provide information to us, the information will be transferred out of the European Union (EU) to the United States. By providing personal information to us, you are consenting to its storage and use as described herein.

Information collected from children

You must be at least 13 years old to use ImageScale’s website(s) and services. ImageScale does not knowingly collect information from children under 13. (See the Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act.)

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy as we deem necessary or appropriate because of legal compliance requirements or changes in our business practices. Any changes we may make to our Privacy Policy in the future will be posted on this page. If you do not agree with changes to the Privacy Policy, you should immediately stop using your account. Continued use of your account after changes to the Privacy Policy will be deemed to be acceptance of the changes.

The latest version of ImageScale’s Privacy Policy will be posted at <http://imagescale.co/privacy>.
